NY STATE HEALTHCARE WORKERS RALLY TO PROTEST MANDATORY FLU VACCINES

ALBANY, NY SEPTEMBER 18, 2009: New York Healthcare Workers, and New York Campaign for Liberty are sponsoring a rally in opposition to The NY State Health Department mandate requiring tens of thousands of health care workers across the state to be vaccinated for flu, amid fears that swine flu will return in the fall. The new regulation, quietly adopted as an "emergency" in August, affects workers at hospitals, in home health care agencies and in hospice care, but, because of a technicality in state law, not in nursing homes.

The rally protesting this egregious mandate affecting healthcare workers will be held on Tuesday, September 29, 2009 from 10:00am to 1:00pm at

The East Capitol Park in front of the Capitol
Building, State St. in Albany, New York.
